DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 7-9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The language of the claim raises a question as to whether the claim is directed merely to an abstract idea that is not tied to a technological art, environment or machine which would result in a practical application producing a concrete, useful, and tangible result to form the basis of statutory subject matter under 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claim 7, claims the non-statutory subject matter of a program. Data structures not claimed as embodied in a computer readable medium are descriptive material per se and are not statutory because they are not capable of causing functional change in the computer. See, e.g., Warmerdam, 33 F.3d at 1361, 31 USPQ2d at 1754 (claim to a data structure per se held nonstatutory). Therefore, since the claimed programs are not tangibly embodied in a physical medium and encoded on a computer readable medium then the Applicants has not complied with 35 U.S.C 101.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-6 are allowed.

Applicant's independent claims 1 and 4: The present in invention is directed to radio base station system formed of one master base station, a plurality of slave base stations, and a control device controlling the master base station and the slave base stations, the independent claim identifies the patentably distinct feature "slot setting means for setting, as a reception control slot, a predetermined reception slot in the frame of said slave base station matching in timing with a reception control slot in the frame of the master base station; each of the base stations includes: reception level obtaining means for obtaining a reception level of said set reception control slot when a link channel establishment request message is received in said set reception control slot, and traffic channel allocating means for allocating a traffic channel with respect to a mobile station transmitting the link channel establishment request message to predetermined transmission and reception slots in the frame according to a traffic channel allocation instruction; and the control device includes: allocation instructing means for receiving the reception level from each of the base stations determining the base station of the maximum reception level and transmitting the traffic channel allocation instruction to the determined base station". Applicant's independent claims 1 and 4 comprise a particular combination of elements, which is neither taught nor suggested by prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submission should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
